

LIBERAL ARTS AND SOCIAL SCI (LASS)

LASS 1500 Mastering CLASS and YSU Orientation to the College and University 1 s.h.

Assists students in making a successful transition to YSU and the College of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences. Promotes engagement in academic and co-curricular activities, expectations of the University and its faculty, clarification of educational goals, and navigation of university policies, procedures, and resources.

LASS 1510 Exploring Critical Questions in LASS 3 s.h.

The ability to gather and evaluate information, uses it to find solutions to problems and then communicate the findings to others, are the very skills that define liberal arts and social sciences majors and prepare them to become engaged local and global citizens in diverse academic, cultural, and professional contexts. This course will introduce students to the types of intellectual questions and local and global issues posed by researchers in our College. For instance, how do economists address issues of poverty as opposed to historians or sociologists. This course fulfills the general education first-year experience requirement.

LASS 2600 Career Strategy for the Social Sciences & Humanities 1 s.h.

This course is designed to help social sciences and humanities majors translate their education, skills, interests, and values into tangible career goals and eventually, a first job or internship. Emphasis will be placed on identifying opportunities and goals tailored to each student's unique interests, career research, obtainment of relevant career experience, and debunking myths about career and majors. Students will be exposed to realistic and diverse career opportunities and employers.

Prereq.: 24 hours of undergraduate coursework.

LASS 2610 International Perspectives Credit for Study Abroad 0 s.h.

The Social and Personal Awareness requirement will be reduced to one course for students who complete at least 3 semester hours of YSU approved coursework with a grade of C or better while residing outside the United States for the equivalent of a semester. To receive the requirement reduction, the coursework must be approved by the Center for International Studies and Programs prior to the student studying abroad.

LASS 3750 Study Abroad 1-15 s.h.

An individually-arranged program of foreign study. Programs can be of 3 general types: (1) study trips conducted by YSU faculty, (2) trips or residential programs sponsored by consortial universities, and (3) independent trips. For independent trips, YSU faculty will design appropriate educational objectives and evaluate students' performance in meeting these objectives. A written plan detailing these objectives must be approved by a faculty member of the Global Awareness Committee and the dean of Arts and Sciences prior to the commencement of the trip. For all three categories, credit toward fulfillment of the degree requirements will be determined by the dean(s) of the relevant college(s), in consultation with the appropriate department chairperson(s). Note: study abroad generally requires about one year's advance planning.

Prereq.: Sophomore status.

LASS 3760 Washington Center Internship 6-12 s.h.

Qualified students will work in selected public and private agencies in the Washington, D.C. area, thus providing access to government and community leaders and activities, and gaining experience by participating in projects, seminars, and courses. A final project is required. Students must take an additional academic credit course at Washington Center. Additional details are available through the Department of Political Science. Credit may be applicable to the major. Grading for this course will be CR/NC.

Prereq.: Junior or senior standing, acceptance by the Washington Center, and permission of the chairperson of the major.
