

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Welcome

I want to tell you how pleased we are to welcome you to Youngstown State University and to the Department of History. With a faculty of ten, we offer courses across a broad range of subjects and something, we believe, to interest everyone.

I hope that you will stop by and visit us at the Department on the fifth floor of DeBartolo Hall, room 519. Please feel welcome to stop in for advice, general information, or just to chat. You should also watch for History Club and Phi Alpha Theta notices about our weekly events held throughout the semester.

I also encourage you to drop by the Youngstown Historical Center of Industry and Labor located at 151 Wood Street on the southern edge of campus. The museum is managed by the department and we would like to invite you and your guests to visit us there. (Your student ID grants you free admission at any time.)

Martha I. Pallante

Chair of the Department of History

Mission

The Department of History at Youngstown State University is dedicated to the discovery and dissemination of knowledge about the past. The department promotes and integrates scholarship, teaching, and service to educate its undergraduate and graduate students. It promotes civic engagement with the wider community. Through the teaching of history in and out of the classroom the department fosters understanding and appreciation of diversity and provides a global perspective. Our aim is to examine and disseminate knowledge of the past and of the nature of its study and reconstruction through a variety of educational experiences and historical methodologies and to train future scholars of history.

The student majoring in history must complete, in addition to the general University requirements, the group requirements outlined on the curriculum sheet (<http://catalog.yсу.edu/archives/2016-2017/undergraduate/colleges-programs/college-liberal-arts-social-sciences/department-history/ba-history/#curriculumstext>). It is recommended that the student select courses with assistance from an advisor, since certain courses are preferable to others according to whether one contemplates graduate study, secondary school teaching, or some other career.

The Bachelor of Arts in History can be completed in eight semesters if students average 16 hours per semester.

For more information, visit the Department of History in DeBartolo Hall, room 519 or contact us at (330) 941-3452.

Learning Outcomes

The student learning outcomes for the major in history embody the five basic goals that the Department of History faculty believes are central to our endeavors:

- Students will recognize the difference between primary and secondary resources and be able to critically read and analyze their contents.
- Students will understand the concepts of historiography and that historical interpretation is not stagnant but changes over time.
- Students will understand the significance of chronologies and the impact of cause and effect.
- Students will comprehend the importance and impact of cultural diversity on the past and its relevance in the present.

- Students will effectively communicate in written and oral media and exhibit the critical thinking and synthesis necessary to the historian's work.
