Introduction to the Department

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures offers B.A. degrees in Italian and Spanish and, in conjunction with the Beeghly College of Education, B.S. degrees in Italian Education and Spanish Education.

The Department offers minors in French, Italian, and Spanish and has now introduced Certificate programs in those languages, which require 14 hours of coursework and study abroad (as opposed to the 18-19 hours required by minors).

The Department also offers a limited amount of course work in American Sign Language, Arabic, Chinese, Latin and Ancient Greek.

Students interested in French, Italian or Spanish, even if they are not majors or minors, are invited to participate in the French, Italian or Spanish Club.

Learning Outcomes

The Department's learning outcomes for all modern language courses, the level of expectation depending on the level of the course, are as follows:

- Cultural Understanding: The student will develop an understanding and appreciation of the history and culture of those areas in which the target language is (or was) spoken.
- Reading Comprehension: The student will be able to read and understand a variety of materials written in the target language. These materials may include but are not limited to: novels, plays, poetry, newspaper and magazine articles, and private correspondence (e.g., business communications).
- Listening Comprehension: The student will be able to understand the target language when spoken in a variety of contexts. These contexts may include but are not limited to conversation with another individual or individuals, formal lectures, song and film.
- Oral Expression: The student will be able to carry on a conversation and deliver a speech in the target language.
- Written Expression: The student will be able to compose in the target language a variety of written documents. These documents may include but are not limited to formal and casual correspondence, essays and creative works.

Advising

Advising is carried out by the Chair of the Department in consultation with the faculty in each language group. Student are advised to meet at least once a year with the Chair and encouraged to meet each semester.

Study Abroad

The Department encourages all students to study abroad and sponsors its own program in Italy (since 2012) and is developing one in Colombia.

Language Clubs

Each of the Department's three most heavily enrolled languages, French, Italian and Spanish, has a club for majors, minors and any other students who have an interest in that language. Club activities include regular meetings, conversation hours, organized dinners, and attendance at various events such as Opera Western Reserve and the Cleveland International Film Festival.
