Program Description
The Department of Humanities and Social Sciences offers a graduate program leading to the Master of Arts in History. Its curriculum combines American, European, and Transnational areas. The program prepares students for:

- Doctoral study in history or related fields,
- Advancement in secondary and elementary education with a concentration in history and the social sciences,
- Certification in applied history, and/or
- Additional graduate study in a variety of professional areas.

The program also provides the knowledge base for those pursuing history as an avocation. The program concentrates on research and primary materials, written analysis of research results, study of important monographs in a variety of historical fields, and training in a number of specialized fields, such as oral history and historic preservation. The department prides itself on its small classes and close personal attention to all of its master’s candidates.

Admission Requirements
Regular admission will be granted to those students who:

1. Meet the YSU Graduate College’s qualifications for regular admission.
2. Hold a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university
3. Have submitted a satisfactory academic writing assignment

Students not meeting these requirements may be considered for provisional admission or non-degree status instead.

Foreign language examination is not required.

A minimum overall GPA of 3.0 (on the 4.0 scale) is required for graduation. No credit is given for a course where the grade is below “C,” but the grade is included when calculating the overall GPA. Consistently low grades are a basis for dismissal from the program.

Total Semester Hours 30-33

Learning Outcomes

1. LO1 (All courses): Students will demonstrate the skills necessary for the historian to analyze information and report findings effectively, by recognizing the difference between primary and secondary resources and being able to critically read and analyze their content; by effectively communicating in written and oral media; and by exhibiting satisfactory critical-thinking and synthesis skills.

2. LO2 (All courses): Students will demonstrate comprehension of the basic concepts that guide the historian’s work, by understanding: the concepts of historiography and that historical interpretation is not fixed but changes over time; the significance of chronologies and the impact of cause and effect; and the importance and impact of cultural diversity on the past and its relevance in the present.

3. LO3 (Applied History Courses): Students will demonstrate the ability to translate traditional historical scholarship into media meant primarily for non-academic audiences.

4. LO4 (HIST 6952/Final Project and Research Seminars): Students will demonstrate the ability to employ the skill of the historian to produce an original research project(s) based on primary and secondary sources.
