

RECIPROCAL RESPONSIBILITIES FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS AND INSTRUCTORS

Endorsed by YSU Academic Senate April 5, 2023

The Reciprocal Responsibilities for Undergraduate Students and Instructors document (<https://ysu.edu/sites/default/files/users/atkaufman/2023.4.05%20Reciprocal%20Responsibilities%20for%20Undergraduate%20Instructors%20and%20Students%20%28002%29.pdf>) was democratically developed with representatives of the Student Government Association, Senate Academic Standards Committee, and Senate Teaching and Learning Committee. The intent is to, through a student-faculty partnership, create a set of foundational/floor/baseline classroom management behaviors that align with the OEA contract.* It is expected that best practices in teaching be addressed through the TEACH principles. Classroom practices for instructors and students pertains to all undergraduate students and instructors. Instructors include full-time instructors, part-time instructors, graduate teaching assistants, and virtual assistants.

*Students and faculty commit to uphold this agreement to maintain a constructive teaching and learning environment. Students and faculty who feel these principles are not being upheld should consult their rights within the classroom environment.
