

BACHELOR OF SOCIAL WORK IN SOCIAL WORK

Youngstown State University offers an accredited Bachelor of Social Work program. The program includes general education, support, social work lecture courses and a social work field internship to prepare graduates for entry-level professional social work practice. Graduates of the BSW program are eligible for a license to practice social work as a Licensed Social Worker (LSW) in Ohio.

WELCOME

The social work profession has a long-standing tradition of delivering the energy, intelligence, and heart to make a difference in the lives of people. Through the efforts and energy of social workers, people who might otherwise suffer or go without suffer less and have what they need. Because of the knowledge and skills social workers use to help people, complex human problems are addressed responsibly using the best methods available. And through the expression of humane values held by members of the social work profession, people served are treated with compassion and dignity.

Social workers are committed to helping people adapt with a keen eye on the environment and the opportunities that exist to make this adaptation possible. Social workers work with a broad range of people and the concerns they bring and are interested in the actions that will improve their situations. Social workers are employed in a broad range of organizations both private and governmental.

If you are ready for a human services career that is challenging and offers a wide range of rewards, the Bachelor of Social Work degree is the place to start. I invite you to explore the social work major at Youngstown State University.

BSW Program Mission

The Bachelor of Social Work Program at Youngstown State University has as its primary mission the educational preparation of students for beginning, competent, generalist social work practice.

The Bachelor of Social Work Program at Youngstown State University prepares graduates to assume professional roles in addressing social problems that are related to the economic and social conditions of the Youngstown region. Conditions of poverty, unemployment, underemployment, racial and ethnic disparities and demands for service exist in the region. Racial and ethnic minorities, women and children are particularly vulnerable groups who are over represented with regard to disparate social and economic conditions. The Department of Social Work is committed to raising the consciousness of students with regard to these conditions as well as increasing their understanding of how vulnerable groups are often the target of the aforementioned injustices. Exposing students to these problems increases understanding and enhances the potential for thoughtful solutions and remedies.

The Bachelor of Social Work Program at Youngstown State University offers education preparation that enables students to integrate the knowledge, values, and skills of the social work profession into competent practice with individuals, families, groups, institutions, organizations, and communities.

This preparation also enables students to apply their understanding of the social work profession in a broad range of client service settings with a variety of groups and presenting problems. As entry level practitioners, graduates are capable of delivering social services in a manner that is consistent with the values and ethics of the social work profession. Ultimately, students recognize their responsibility to continue their professional growth and development to include the incorporation of the latest technologies in their practice.

The mission, purpose, and philosophy of the Bachelor of Social Work Program at Youngstown State University are consistent with the overall institutional mission. The institutional mission is "dedicated to encouraging public service . . . promoting and understanding diversity . . . and advancing the intellectual, cultural and economic life of the state and region." The Bachelor of Social Work Program embraces the institution's commitment to address the needs of the region it which it is located.

BSW Program goals

1. Prepare students for beginning, generalist social work practice.
2. Provide students with the ability to integrate the knowledge, values and skills of the social work profession into competent practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities.
3. Develop the ability of students to work with a diversity of clients, presenting problems, and social service delivery systems.
4. Facilitate the development of core values and ethics of the social work profession.
5. Prepare students to understand and to address issues pertaining to social and economic justice to include poverty, oppression, racism and discrimination.
6. Prepare students to sustain their effectiveness by instilling the value of continuing professional growth and development.

ADMISSION AND PROGRESSION Pre-Social Work

Students enter the BSW program by declaring themselves as pre-social work majors and begin progress toward a degree by enrolling in General Education Requirement, support, and pre-social work courses. These courses are typically completed in the freshman and sophomore years.

Neither admission to the University nor enrollment in social work courses as a pre-social work major guarantees full admission to the social work major. Full admission to the major is required to enroll in upper-division social work classes. Pre-social work majors who are not formally admitted to the social work program will be unable to obtain a permit to register for Social Work 3736 and subsequent social work courses for which Social Work 3736 is a prerequisite. To be admitted to the program as a social work major, pre-social work majors must meet the following requirements:

Social Work Major

To gain entry into upper-division social work courses beginning with SCWK 3736 Social Work Methods with Individuals, students must be formally admitted to the social work major. To be admitted to the social work major, students must be declared pre-social work majors and meet the following requirements:

1. Complete all pre-social work courses with a C or better.
2. Possess an overall GPA of 2.5 or better.
3. Meet with your academic advisor to determine eligibility and next steps.
4. Participate in an admission interview and be approved for admission by the BSW Program Admission Committee.
