Learning Outcomes

The English Department has established the following learning outcomes for students completing the English major:

- English majors will deploy varied strategies for engaging with literature on the levels of words, appropriate parts of texts, whole texts, contexts, and criticism.
- English majors will be able to situate texts in the appropriate literary, historical, and cultural contexts.
- English majors will be able to analyze how the production and reception of language and literature are influenced by differences of form, culture, and identity.
- English majors will effectively present and discuss ideas about literature and language in a manner that is appropriate for the situation.
