

STATEMENT ON HEALTH AND SAFETY

Youngstown State University is committed to the health and safety of its employees, students and guests. The University will develop and maintain programs with the intent of preventing safety hazards and promoting health on our campus. The programs developed shall be compliant with, but not limited to, all federal, state and local regulations applicable to safety, health and the environment. All University-related facilities, activities, and programs shall be designed, conducted, and operated in a manner that reasonably protects human health and safety.

DEPARTMENTS:

The Campus Safety Division includes the University Police and the Department of Environmental Occupational Health and Safety (EOHS).

EOHS RESPONSIBILITIES:

EOHS is responsible for developing and implementing appropriate environmental health and safety programs and training. EOHS regularly consults with the University's Office of General Counsel to ensure that the University maintains compliance with federal, state and local legislation that affects the safety of the campus environment.
